

Take the best route to protecting your business

DSP Insurance — SIMPLIFIED

Amazon has selected Marsh, the world's leading insurance broker and risk advisor, as the Delivery Service Partner (DSP) Insurance Program manager of choice. This insurance solution is your one-stop-shop for managing all your DSP business insurance requirements.

Which insurance products are required?

Commercial Auto covers damage to your vehicle and property damage or injuries to others in an at-fault accident.

- Cargo Legal Liability provides up to $25,000 of coverage for damaged or loss of property in the course of transit due to fire, collision or striking of load.
- Hired and Non-Owned Automobile Liability covers a temporary replacement vehicle for a permanent vehicle that is out of service.

General Liability offers wide-ranging coverage for mishaps, damages, and injury to others, not involving your vehicles.

Workers' Compensation provides your employees with medical and wage loss coverage for work-related injuries resulting from things like slips, trips, and falls.

Which insurance company underwrites the products?

Old Republic Insurance Company is the carrier for the program managed by Marsh, which provides that products that meet the specific insurance coverage and limits required for DSP companies working with Amazon¹. The hard work is already done for you — no second guessing.

Why use the DSP Insurance program?

No down payment, no financing: While some programs require a 20-30% down payment, with Marsh you'll pay no financing fees and no down payment. Marsh will simply deduct your monthly insurance payment automatically from the checking account of your choice.

Amazon Fleet Tool integration: Marsh has worked with Amazon to get regular updates to your active vehicle information from the Amazon Fleet Tool...so you only have to maintain your fleet data in one place. When we receive a vehicle change from the Amazon Fleet Tool, Marsh, will automatically update your insurance and notify you of the changes!

Access digital tools to manage your insurance: Marsh has created an online platform to help simplify managing your insurance anytime, anywhere. You have the ability to view, download and print important documents, access policy details and review personalized insights and actions based on your insurance performance. Our teams are continually adding new features to make managing your insurance simple.
